

OLIN HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY

Olin's Core Values – Act with Integrity, Drive Innovation and Improvement, and Lift Olin People – are the foundation of our organization. Inherent in these values is our commitment to responsible corporate citizenship and the respect for and advancement of human rights across the globe.

The Olin Human Rights Policy is informed by the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and the human rights principles encompassed in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Bill of Human Rights, and the International Labor Organization's 1998 Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Every Employee. Everywhere.

The Olin Human Rights Policy is endorsed by Olin's Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer. Every Olin employee worldwide is empowered with the responsibility to ensure that our actions and intentions uphold our values. Within our annual Code of Conduct training, Olin employees reaffirm their commitment to our policies.

Freedom Of Association and Collective Bargaining

We respect our employees' right to form, join or refrain from joining a labor union without fear of reprisal, intimidation, or harassment. We commit to engaging in constructive dialogue and bargaining in good faith with the freely chosen representatives of labor unions at our sites.

Zero Tolerance of Any Form of Forced Labor, Child Labor, or Trafficking

We will not knowingly conduct business with any organization involved in forced labor or human trafficking. Our Business Partner Code of Conduct outlines our expectations and requirements to ensure all organizations with whom we do business also adhere to a zero-tolerance policy.

Inclusive & Welcoming Workplace – the Value of &

We are committed to creating a culture where the diverse perspectives & ideas of all employees are heard & valued. We lift our people by fostering inclusive dialogue, bringing people together & building trust.
